37000 a.C.
Eruption of "Imbrignite Campana".

13000 a.C.
Eruption of "Tufo Giallo Napoletano".

750 a.C. ca.
Foundation of Rome.

Foundation of Cuma

326 a.C.
Rome obtains control of Central Italy by winning the Second Sannitic War.

194 a.C.
Foundation of Liternum and Puteoli.

II - I sec. a.C..
Costruction, on Baia's coastline, of a large amount of domus, owned by important personalities in the Republic.

30 a.C. ca
Augustus demands the construction of the Fontis Augustei Acquaeductus and the institution of the Classis Misenensis.

59 d.C.
Nero commands the assassination of his mother Agrippina in Baia.

79 d.C.
Eruption of Vesuvio and distruction of Pompei and Ercolano.

230 d.C.
After many of his forefathers, Alexander Severus is the last emperor demanding new construction in Baia.

476 d.C.
Fall of the Western Roman Empire and gradual forgetting of Baia.

1495
Construction of Castello Aragonese above the ruins of the presumed Caesar's domus.

1538
Eruption of Monte Nuovo.

1940
Starting of excavation in the Archaeological Park of Thermal Baths, in Baia.

1955
Adriano Olivetti inaugurates Olivetti's factory of Pozzuoli, triggering a process of industrialisation and provoking a wild urbanisation in the area.

1979
Publication of "Baiae-Misenum", collection of research by Borriello - D'Ambrosio about the main archaeological sites along the peninsula.

2016
Establishment of the "Archaeological Park of Phlegrean Fields".

MAIN EVENTS SUCCESSION