

Concept plan

Agricultural lands

Sc: 1.2500

Agricultural lands are like a belt around the city, where are divided with the highway.
The aim of this concept plan is to create a linkage between the agriculture lands and the city component.
Moreover, the lands has potential to attract people, where can be a public space with the purpose of education about the agricultural aspect of the region.

Plan legend

Existed elements

- Building
- Agricultural land
- Agricultural buildings

To be define

- The plantation of new vineyard and promote the existing vineyard in agricultural lands. The aim is to promote vine industry and agricultural industry of the city.
- Create areas for Eco gastronomy inside existing productive buildings to promote the knowledge of typical production. It provides an opportunities for people.
- The creation of walkable path way around the preserved vineyard in order to provide an opportunity for people to experience the agricultural industry of the city.
- The creation of an agricultural hub that offers a location for visitors to stroll through vineyards, gain experience, and deepen their understanding of the wine-making process.
- The preservation of agricultural buildings, and reuse them with various public functions.
- The restoration of historical Casine to ensure their preservation for the future. The aim is to preserve the identity of the city in all dimensions and transmit it to next generation.
- The creation of a public space where there are different agricultural function existed. In order to provide a public space for holding agricultural event, and people's gathering.
- The plantation of typical plants and promote the agricultural lands. The aim is to promote vine industry and agricultural industry of the city.
- The renovation of the agricultural workshop building will help the city's economy and agricultural sector. The goal is to protect the city's agriculture.

- The creation of parking lot along the main road where meet the designed vineyards. The aim is to create parking spots close to the pausing spots along the road and the agricultural hub, where attract more people to the hub.
- The restoration of abandoned buildings as the shops for local products.
- The restoration of abandoned buildings as the agricultural exhibition where historical and modern techniques are demonstrating. The aim is to increase the knowledge of agricultural of region.
- The realization of stops for cars along the roads. The stops are situated in the buildings with high historical values, in the designed urban squares and public spaces, designed urban hubs. The aim is to provide a place to attract traveler to the history and identity of the city while they can rest and have a break.
- The vegetation of trees as the division of spaces with different functions. Existing lines of trees around the office building separated it from other historical spaces.
- The creation of green buffer around the train line and industrial zone. These trees play the role of noise and pollution insulation. The goal is to prevent noise and pollution from entering the rest of the city.

