

This project will change a canalization river into a vitality recreation corridor in the edge of the city. The Lambro Greenway consists of several parks aims to link the connection between north and south. The whole area acts as the green ridge in the east gate of Milan city and helps to improve the recreation network. The natural surrounding could provide a gentle transition from urban rush to tranquil countryside.

CONNECTION WITH THE CITY

CONCEPT---DNA (Dynamic, Nature, Agriculture)

