

Italy_Via Francigena

Emilia Romagna_Via Emilia

Fidenza, situated along the ancient Via Emilia, is among the smaller towns in the province of Parma where signs of life, culture and devotion of the Middle Age are still evident.

Because of the veneration of mortal remains of St. Dominus, the cathedral became a vital stopping place for pilgrims bound to Rome along the Via Francigena.

Nowadays the cathedral has been candidated as Unesco heritage.

POLITECNICO DI MILANO

CAMPUS OF PIACENZA

SCUOLA DI ARCHITETTURA E SOCIETA'

MASTER IN SUSTAINABLE ARCHITECTURE OF MULTI-SCALE PROJECT

A.Y. 2014/2015

[28th July 2015]

BETWEEN HISTORICAL CENTER AND FIDENZA VILLAGE:
VISIONS OF A CONTEMPORARY LANDSCAPE.

SUPERVISOR: PROFESSOR MICHELE RODA

STUDENT: FRANCESCA CANALI

[I.C. 803721]

not to scale

The Context

01

MASTER THESIS